

U.S. White Supremacy Groups

Key Points:

- Some modern white supremacist groups, such as The Base, Hammerskin Nation, and Atomwaffen Division, subscribe to a National Socialist (neo-Nazi) ideology. These groups generally make no effort to hide their overt racist belief that the white race is superior to others.
- Other modern white supremacist groups, however, propagate their radical stances under the guise of white ethno-nationalism, which seeks to highlight the distinctiveness—rather than the superiority—of the white identity. Such groups, which include the League of the South and Identity Evropa, usually claim that white identity is under threat from minorities or immigrants that seek to replace its culture, and seek to promote white ethno-nationalism as a legitimate ideology that belongs in mainstream political spheres.
- Most modern white supremacist groups eschew violent tactics in favor of using demonstrations and propaganda to sway public opinion and portray their ideologies as legitimate. However, their racial elitist ideologies have nonetheless spurred affiliated individuals to become involved in violent altercations.
- White supremacist groups often target youth for recruitment through propaganda campaigns on university campuses and social media platforms. White supremacists have long utilized Internet forums and websites to connect, organize, and propagate their extremist messages.

Executive Summary

Since the Ku Klux Klan (KKK) first formed in 1865, white supremacist groups in the United States have propagated racism, hatred, and violence. Individuals belonging to these groups have been charged with a range of crimes, including civil rights violations, racketeering, solicitation to commit crimes of violence, firearms and explosives violations, and witness tampering.¹ Nonetheless, white supremacist groups—and their extremist ideologies—persist in the United States today. A February 2017 Southern Poverty Law Center report identified 100 active white nationalist and 99 active neo-Nazi groups in the country.²

The Counter Extremism Project (CEP) has identified eight especially virulent white supremacist groups, which principally espouse white ethno-nationalism and/or National Socialism (neo-Nazi). Neo-Nazi groups, such as the National Socialist Movement (NSM), Hammerskin Nation, and Atomwaffen Division, generally make no effort to hide their belief that the white race is superior to others. Their ideologies also usually include anti-Semitic and homophobic components that are in line with Nazi dogma. In contrast, groups such as the League of the South and Identity Evropa propagate their radical stances under the guise of white ethno-nationalism, which seeks to highlight the distinctiveness—rather than the superiority—of the white identity.

Furthermore, it claims that the white identity is under threat from minorities or immigrants that seek to replace its culture. For example, Identity Evropa’s chant, “You will not replace us,” insinuates that growing minority populations threaten to overtake whites of European heritage in American society.³ Members of this new generation of white supremacists, such as former Traditionalist Worker Party (TWP) leader Matthew Heimbach, have decried the traditional supremacist narrative of the inferiority of non-white races. Heimbach and his contemporaries have instead focused on racial separation rather than racial superiority, promoting the idea that all races are better served by remaining separate.⁴

Spurred by the rise of these younger ethno-nationalist leaders and organizations, some overtly racist groups have attempted to soften their radical images. In late 2016, the NSM abandoned its use of the swastika in order to “appear more integrated and more mainstream,” according to NSM leader Jeff Schoep.⁵ Despite the cosmetic change, the NSM’s ideology and rhetoric have largely remained unchanged, while groups like the Hammerskins have thoroughly rejected the attempt at rebranding.

In a further effort to gain popular support and acceptance for their radical platforms, most of the groups profiled in this resource have officially renounced violence and instead rely on demonstrations and propaganda to sway public opinion. Nonetheless, many affiliated individuals have still been involved in violent altercations spurred by ideologies that encourage racial elitism. Furthermore, violence plays a defining role for groups like Atomwaffen Division, which projects the image of a heavily armed militia preparing for an impending race war.⁶

Groups like Identity Evropa—which shut down in March 2019 as its leaders created the American Identity Movement (AIM)—officially reject violence but their identitarian ideology has directly inspired it. Identitarians—including those based in non-European countries such as the United States and Australia—associate their Western identity as European. Identitarians subscribe to a theory known as the Great Replacement, in which non-European migrants threaten to replace the dominant white European culture.⁷ The March 15, 2019, attack on two New Zealand mosques that left at least 50 dead was a direct manifestation of the identitarian ideology to which Identity Evropa and AIM subscribe. Alleged attacker Brenton Tarrant entitled his manifesto “The Great Replacement” and wrote about the “crisis of mass immigration ... that, if not combated, will ultimately result in the complete racial and cultural replacement of the European people.”⁸ Like Identity Evropa, Tarrant identified a broader white European ethnic identity prevalent in the Western world that transcended national borders.

Most of the groups profiled are comprised of a younger demographic of individuals in their 20s and 30s, and primarily target youth for recruitment through social media and other means. Groups like Identity Evropa, Atomwaffen Division, and Vanguard America have actually spread their propaganda on college campuses, and groups such as the National Socialist Movement and League of the South have created youth wings and student memberships.⁹ In recent years, social media and the Internet have also provided new outlets for white supremacists to spread their messages and recruit supporters. The founders of Atomwaffen Division met and organized on the now-defunct fascist online forum IronMarch, and created a cult-like subculture on social media through which they have further propagated their ideology.¹⁰ Stormfront, America’s oldest and most notorious neo-Nazi online forum founded in 1995, was removed by its Internet host in August 2017, but simply resurfaced months later.¹¹ Other forums, like the Daily Stormer, have moved their operations to the Dark Web, which is accessible only through encrypted software.¹² Websites like American Renaissance—which is easily accessible on the surface web—act as online media outlets, displaying links to pseudo-intellectual articles, videos, and podcasts that attempt to present white supremacy as a legitimate social science.

CEP’s U.S. White Supremacy Groups report provides an overview of the history, propaganda, violent activities, and notable rhetoric of the most active and virulent white supremacist groups in the United States, as well as several prominent white supremacist media outlets.

American Renaissance ran as a monthly print magazine from 1990 to 2012 before switching to an online-only format.¹⁶ American Renaissance collects tax-deductible donations through the New Century Foundation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit Taylor created in 1994.¹⁷ According to the Southern Poverty Law Center, the New Century Foundation promotes "pseudo-scientific studies and research that purport to show the inferiority of blacks to whites," which utilize academic jargon to disguise itself as serious scholarship.¹⁸ In 2016, the Associated Press reported that the New Century Foundation, alongside three other white supremacist non-profit groups, had raised more than $8 million in a 10-year period.¹⁹

- Recruitment and Propaganda: American Renaissance employs what Jared Taylor has referred to as “sober, factual discussion” in order to present its ethno-nationalism as an academic endeavor.²⁷ The website’s leaders employ academic language to present racist ideas as legitimate social science. For example, the group’s self-description claims they are “dedicated to the study of immigration and race relations so as to better understand the consequences of America’s increasing diversity...”²⁸ American Renaissance labels its so-called academic approach as “race realism,” the study of which it promotes as necessary for “the survival of the West.”²⁹

American Renaissance also maintains a merchandise section on its website, and encourages visitors to donate directly to the site’s non-profit parent group, New Century Foundation, or bequeath a donation in their wills.³⁰

- Violent Activities: American Renaissance is not known to have instigated any violent attacks. The organization instead relies on the spread of racist propaganda through its own media channels.
- Rhetoric:
 - Jared Taylor, July 2017: “We are in a battle for our lives. We are all soldiers in this titanic battle. And we will win!”³¹
 - Jared Taylor, October 20, 2016: “Neither the French nor the Americans can solve their race problem because they are mentally paralyzed. They refuse to see that the multi-racial societies they are trying to build cannot succeed, and they continue to pile compromise onto accommodation rather than give up on a futile goal.”³²
 - Jared Taylor, October 11, 2016: “What whites are expected to do is without precedent in human history. Atomwaffen Division

- Summary: German for “atomic weapons,” Atomwaffen Division (AWD) is a neo-Nazi organization that seeks the creation of a National Socialist government through a violent “white revolution,” and believes that a race war is inevitable.³⁴ The group promotes Nazi and satanic propaganda in pursuit of “total Aryan victory.”³⁵ AWD gained national prominence after some of its members attacked counter-protesters at the August 2017 Unite the Right rally in Charlottesville, Virginia. Police also suspect individual AWD members to be the perpetrators of multiple murders throughout 2017 and 2018.³⁶

AWD follows a neo-Nazi ideology promoted by James Mason, a former American Nazi Party member and a follower of cult leader Charles Manson.³⁷ During the 1980s, Mason wrote a series of pro-Manson and pro-Nazi newsletters that he called Siege and later compiled into a book of the same name.³⁸ Users on the now-defunct fascist web forum IronMarch formed AWD after discovering Siege. They based AWD’s ideology on Mason’s ideas of autonomous terror cells fighting a guerilla war against “the system.”³⁹

A 2018 joint ProPublica and PBS investigation identified multiple active-duty and former U.S. soldiers in AWD, including co-founder Brandon Russell, who served in the Florida National Guard.⁴⁰ These AWD members have reportedly organized training sessions in

Other far-right groups have condemned AWD as a cult front for the British neo-Nazi Satanist group the Order of the Nine Angles. In January 2018, a former AWD member wrote online that the group had been infiltrated by Satanists. According to leaked chat transcripts, several AWD members have resigned as of March 2018 because of the growing occult fixation, while others have embraced the satanic imagery.⁴⁴

In July 2018, AWD members on the social media site Gab began displaying the name Sonnenkrieg Division, which launched its own Gab page the following month. The group is a British branch of AWD and uses similar propaganda and imagery.⁵⁴ Two members were imprisoned in 2019 for threatening to kill Prince Harry, whom they labeled a “race traitor” for marrying a woman of mixed race. The United Kingdom banned Sonnenkrieg Division in February 2020.⁵⁵

- Recruitment and Propaganda: James Mason’s book Siege is required reading for AWD members.⁵⁶ In 2017, a group of IronMarch members created a website for Mason’s writings at <https://siegeculture.biz/>.⁵⁷ The site’s administrators credit AWD for the development of the so-called Siege Culture promoting Mason and his writings.⁵⁸ The website was offline as of March 2019.⁵⁹ AWD openly embraces Nazi and satanic imagery and rhetoric based on Mason’s Nazi beliefs and fealty to the late cult leader Charles Manson.⁶⁰ AWD members have also cited Oklahoma City bomber Timothy McVeigh and mass shooters Dylann Roof and Anders Breivik as inspirations.⁶¹

AWD has targeted college students, teenagers, and other youth—in particular on college campuses—for recruitment.⁶² In 2016, the group reportedly posted fliers, buttons, banners, and other propaganda adorned with Nazi imagery on eight college campuses.⁶³

In June 2018, AWD reportedly began selling t-shirts through the online retailer Teespring in support of Sam Woodward, the AWD member who allegedly murdered Blaze Bernstein in California earlier that year.⁶⁴

Violent Activities: AWD propaganda videos have featured members armed with assault weapons attending military-style training sessions. Leaked chat logs of AWD members include discussions of targeting U.S. power facilities and other infrastructure.⁶⁵ The group itself has not yet claimed any specific attacks, but individual AWD members have been linked to multiple acts of violence.

- On January 2, 2018, AWD member Sam Woodward allegedly fatally stabbed 20-year-old University of Pennsylvania student Blaze Bernstein in California. Authorities accuse Woodward of killing Bernstein for being gay.⁶⁶ Woodward is awaiting trial as of August 2018. AWD has praised Bernstein's murder.⁶⁷
- On December 22, 2017, 17-year-old Nicholas Giampa murdered his girlfriend's parents, Buckley Kuhn-Fricker and Scott Fricker, in their Reston, Virginia, home. Giampa then shot himself but survived. The Frickers had reportedly encouraged their daughter to break up with Giampa because of his extremist views. Prior to the murders, Giampa had tweeted about using Jews for target practice, his love for Adolf Hitler, and hatred of transgender people. He had also praised James Mason's book, Siege.⁶⁸ AWD members said that Giampa had been in direct contact with the group.⁶⁹ Police charged Giampa with murder upon his release from the hospital, though he was charged as a minor.⁷⁰

Pistolis had bragged online about engaging in violence at the rally.⁷²
- On May 19, 2017, former AWD member and co-founder Devon Arthurs took hostages at a smoke shop in Tampa, Florida. Police convinced Arthurs to release the hostages without incident. Arthurs then confessed that he had killed two of his roommates, Jeremy Himmelman and Andrew Oneschuk. Arthurs also told police that his other roommate, AWD co-founder Brandon Russell, was stockpiling explosives to blow up power plants and synagogues in Florida.⁷³ Arthurs claimed he killed his roommates to prevent an AWD terror attack.⁷⁴ Police discovered the bodies of Himmelman and Oneschuk and explosive materials at the shared condo.⁷⁵ In September 2017, Russell pled guilty to stockpiling the explosives.⁷⁶ He received a five-year sentence in January 2018.⁷⁷ In February 2018, Arthurs was found mentally unfit to stand trial.⁷⁸

The Base

- Summary: The Base is a neo-Nazi, white-supremacist network that describes itself as an “international survivalist and self-defense network” that seeks to train their members for fighting a race war.⁹⁰ The network is active in North America, Europe, South Africa, and Australia. The Base is influenced by the race war called for in the book Siege by neo-Nazi James Mason. The Base is an accelerationist group that encourages the onset on anarchy and so it can then “impose order from chaos.”⁹¹ In a September 2018 episode of the podcast The Roper Report, Base founder Roman Wolf claimed The Base’s goal is to unite white nationalists for the coming race war that will overthrow the government and reshape society.⁹²

The Base has described itself as a “white protection league” and has organized training camps around North America for their members in weaponry and military tactics.⁹³ Wolf has called for members to focus on non-attributable actions that destabilize society. The Base has distributed to its members manuals for lone-wolf terror attacks, bomb-making, counter-surveillance, and guerilla warfare.⁹⁴ In November 2019, the FBI charged Base member Richard Tobin with orchestrating the vandalism of synagogues in Michigan and Wisconsin that September. Tobin told investigators that he envisioned a nationwide campaign, which he called Operation Kristallnacht after the 1938 night of pogroms against Jewish businesses in Germany that marked the beginning of the Holocaust.⁹⁵

The name The Base is the English translation of al-Qaeda, though it is unclear if the link was intentional as the two networks share no other similarities. The Base heavily draws inspiration from the Atomwaffen Division (AWD) and Siege, the neo-Nazi manifesto written by James Mason that inspired Atomwaffen Division. The exact relationship between AWD and The Base remains unclear beyond inspiration.⁹⁶ The Base's membership reportedly includes members of AWD and the far-right group Eco-Fascist Order.⁹⁷

- Base of Operations: International. The Base's presence has been recorded around the United States, Canada, Europe, and Australia.⁹⁸
- Website: <https://thebase966874062.wordpress.com/> (defunct)
- Social Media Presence: The Base previously had an official presence on Gab, Twitter, and Reddit until the respective sites deleted The Base's accounts. Supporters continue to upload video content to BitChute and the Internet Archive. The Base also maintains a channel on Telegram.
- Leadership: The Base claims to be a leaderless resistance group.⁹⁹ Norman Spear, a.k.a. Roman Wolf, launched The Base in June 2018. Both names are reportedly pseudonyms.¹⁰⁰ Spear's true identity was revealed in January 2020 as Rinaldo Nazzaro, a U.S.-born military contractor living in Russia.¹⁰¹
- Membership Size and Relevance: The Base's total membership is unknown as the group has no formal membership.¹⁰² Its primary web forum reportedly has 45 members. There are also regional chat groups.¹⁰³

The Nazis adopted the Eihwaz symbol to memorialize members who died in the 1923 beer hall uprising.¹⁰⁴ The Base’s propaganda encourages membership to join a future race war. Posters displayed in Canada in 2019 brandished the slogan, “Save your Race, Join The Base.”¹⁰⁵

The Base has also used the meme-generating website iFunny to create propaganda memes and post videos, which has sparked interest from some of iFunny’s users. Memes often includes emails or QR codes with which users can get in touch with a recruiter.¹⁰⁶

The Base seeks to create two- to three-man cells around North America, Europe, Australia, and South Africa. According to founder Roman Wolf, The Base’s members includes National Socialists and fascists, as well as “run-of-the-mill white nationalists.”¹⁰⁷

Membership is limited to men of European descent who share The Base’s political philosophy.¹⁰⁸ The Base also requires members to be at least 17 years old.¹⁰⁹ An undercover reporter for the Winnipeg Free Press underwent a “multi-tiered vetting process” that included encrypted online communication, a phone call with founder Roman Wolf, and an in-person meeting with a local representative.¹¹⁰ In a September 2018 episode of the far-right podcast The Roper Report, Wolf claimed that the white nationalist movement is primarily based online and that needs to change. Wolf said the Base is “focused on meeting and training” in order to build a network of trainers across the country.¹¹¹

The network specifically seeks to recruit current and former members of the armed forces so that they can share their skills. Rinaldo Nazzaro, a.k.a. Roman Wolf, has claimed to be a veteran of the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.¹¹² Nazzaro has also claimed to be an intelligence, security, and military contractor.¹¹³ In August 2019, the Winnipeg Free Press identified Canadian Armed Forces soldier Master Corporal Patrik Mathews as responsible for posting recruitment propaganda around Winnipeg, Canada. The Base reportedly ran a recruitment drive across Canada in 2019.¹¹⁴ Mathews was arrested in January 2020 in Maryland alongside Brian Mark Lemley Jr. and William Garfield Bilbrough IV. Lemley previously served as a Cavalry Scout in the U.S. Army. The three were allegedly stockpiling weapons and training for an assault on a pro-Second Amendment rally in Virginia that month.¹¹⁵

- Violent Activities: The Base has not yet claimed responsibility for violent acts, but it has organized military training camps across North America. Founder Roman Wolf and several other members have served in the U.S. or Canadian militaries and used those skills to train other members of The Base in weaponry and combat.¹¹⁶ In November 2019, federal authorities accused Base member Richard Tobin of orchestrating the vandalism of two synagogues earlier in the year. Tobin also admitted to plotting a violent attack against black shoppers at a New Jersey mall. Tobin did not follow through with the attack. He told authorities after his arrest that he had contemplated “suicide by cop,” insinuating that he planned to die while carrying out a future attack.¹¹⁷ In January 2020, authorities in Maryland arrested alleged Base members Patrik Mathews, Brian Mark Lemley Jr., and William Garfield Bilbrough IV. The three were allegedly stockpiling weapons and training for an assault on a pro-Second Amendment rally in Virginia that month, reportedly in the hopes that violence at the rally could spark a civil war.¹¹⁸

Hammerskin Nation

- Summary: Hammerskin Nation is reportedly the largest, most organized, and most violent neo-Nazi skinhead gang in the United States.¹²⁵ The group launched in 1988 and has since spread internationally.¹²⁶ Hammerskin members have been arrested on charges of murder, assault, arson, vandalism, harassment, and other hate crimes.

The Hammerskin movement grew out of the skinhead punk music scene in the 1980s. The first Hammerskin chapter launched in Dallas, Texas, in 1988 as the Confederate Hammerskins. In 1990, the group created its first international chapters in Northern Ireland and Switzerland. Australian and Canadian chapters emerged in 1993. In 1994, the various regional Hammerskin chapters united under the single banner of Hammerskin Nation. Hammerskin Nation reinstated its regional system in 1999 while maintaining the international umbrella.¹²⁷

The Hammerskin Nation website and its online forums reportedly shut down in 2001 under unclear circumstances. Shortly after, noted white supremacist Tom Metzger declared there was no longer an official Hammerskin Nation.¹²⁸ Nevertheless, a site declaring itself the official Hammerskin Nation site went online in 2002.¹²⁹ The site remained active as of October 2018, though its online forums were inoperable.¹³⁰ Despite the diminished online presence, Hammerskin Nation members remain active. In his 2018 book Everything You Love Will Burn, journalist Vegas Tenold reported on Hammerskin activities in 2016 and the group's relations with other white supremacist organizations.¹³¹ The Hammerskins also continue to organize and promote the annual Hammerfest white power music concert. The most recent Hammerfest was scheduled for October 2018 in California.¹³²

- Base of Operations: The first Hammerskins chapter emerged in Dallas, Texas, but the group has no centralized global base of operations. As of October 12, 2018, the Hammerskin Nation website listed six U.S. chapters divided by region: West, Northwest, Midland, Confederate, Northern, and Eastern. Additionally, the group maintains chapters in Australia, Canada, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, New Zealand, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Luxembourg, and Switzerland.¹³³

- Membership Size and Relevance: Hammerskin Nation includes six regional chapters in the United States and 12 international chapters.¹³⁵ There are no estimates of the group's membership numbers, but it is reportedly the largest neo-Nazi skinhead gang in the United States.¹³⁶
- Recruitment and Propaganda: Prospective members of Hammerskin Nation are vetted through multiple stages. First, they become what journalist Vegas Tenold called “hang-arounds,” following members of a Hammerskin chapter but without any status in the group. If members approve of a hang-around's behavior, he or she receives a probationary membership in Crew 38, a Hammerskin support network. After proving their loyalty, the prospective member is then offered membership in Hammerskin Nation. The process can last years before a member advances to the main group.¹³⁷

White power music remains the Hammerskins' primary recruitment method. The Hammerskins host the annual Hammerfest music festival to celebrate the genre of white power music.¹³⁸ The group held the first Hammerfest in 1999.¹³⁹ Bands that have performed at Hammerfest include Beer Hall Putsch and Definite Hate, which previously included Wade Michael Page, who attacked a Sikh temple in 2012.¹⁴⁰ Then-Traditionalist Worker Party leader Matthew Heimbach spoke at the 2016 Hammerfest, praising the Hammerskins as “an example for all Nationalists.”¹⁴¹ White supremacist record label Antipathy Records maintains a “Hammerskin Gear” section on its website.¹⁴²

The Hammerskins promote the numeral 14 based on the 14-word white supremacist motto: “We must secure the existence of our people and a future for White Children.”¹⁴³

COUNTER EXTREMISM PROJECT

The movement is also represented by the number 838, which corresponds to the letters H, C, H, an acronym of the Hammerskin motto, “Hail the Crossed Hammers.” The motto is a reference to the Hammerskin flag, which portrays two crossed hammers. The symbol is a constant in Hammerskin propaganda and its various chapter logos.¹⁴⁴ It is derived from the symbol of a fictional neo-Nazi movement in the 1982 movie Pink Floyd: The Wall.¹⁴⁵ Hammerskin member Wade Michael Page, who killed six people at a Sikh temple in 2012, had 838 tattooed on his arm to signify membership in the Hammerskins.¹⁴⁶

- Violent Activities: The Hammerskin Nation encourages its members to enlist in military forces, such as the U.S. Army, in order to train for a pending race war. Military personnel told Reuters in 2012 that white nationalists are dedicated to the military training because they want to learn weaponry and combat skills.¹⁴⁷ Hammerskin Nation as an organization has not orchestrated violent activities. Nonetheless, Hammerskin members have been involved in numerous violent acts. Further, there have been multiple reports of Hammerskin members engaging each other in physical altercations during Hammerskin events.¹⁴⁸
 - On November 8, 2016, Portuguese police arrested 20 Hammerskin Nation members across the country on suspicion of involvement in a series of violent hate crimes in Portugal between 2013 and 2015.¹⁴⁹
 - On July 10, 2015, police in East Windsor, New Jersey, arrested Richard Pearson on charges of maintaining a drug manufacturing facility, aggravated arson, theft and destruction of evidence. Pearson had multiple previous convictions in Florida and Massachusetts on charges of attempted murder, aggravated assault, home invasion, bias crimes, and bail jumping. Prosecutors have accused Pearson of affiliation with Hammerskin Nation.¹⁵⁰

- identified him as a member of Hammerskin Nation. Giroux pled guilty to first-degree murder and 22 other charges. He received a life sentence in 2016.¹⁵¹
- On August 5, 2012, Hammerskin Nation member Wade Michael Page attacked a Sikh temple in Oak Creek, Wisconsin, killing six and critically wounding three others. A police officer shot and killed Page on the scene.¹⁵² The Anti-Defamation League had identified Page as a white supremacist in 2010 based on his involvement in white power music bands.¹⁵³

 - On March 17, 1999, six Hammerskin members attacked a 23-year-old black man in Temecula, California. The Hammerskins allegedly shouted racial epithets while beating Randy Bowen, who managed to escape. Three of the Hammerskin members pled guilty to assault with a deadly weapon and committing a hate crime.¹⁵⁵ Five of the attackers received sentences ranging from four to 14 years in prison.¹⁵⁶
 - On December 24, 1991, Hammerskin members Louis Oddo and Adam Galleon reportedly beat a homeless black man to death in Birmingham, Alabama. Both Oddo and Galleon were convicted of murder.¹⁵⁷

“identitarian politics.” Identity Evropa claims to represent a “generation of awakened Europeans” who “oppose those who would defame our history and rich cultural heritage.”¹⁶⁵ In March 2019, Identity Evropa’s leaders announced the closure of the group. They simultaneously announced the formation of a new group called American Identity Movement (AIM), which they said would remain committed to Identity Evropa’s cause while promoting nationalism, identitarianism, non-interventionism, protectionism, and populism.¹⁶⁶

Identity Evropa founder Nathan Damigo is a former Marine who was convicted of armed robbery after returning from two tours in Iraq. In prison, he read the works of former KKK leader David Duke and white supremacist J. Philippe Rushton.¹⁶⁷ Damigo has spoken publicly alongside white nationalist Richard Spencer. Identity Evropa largely targeted college students and viewed protests like the August 2017 Unite the Right rally in Charlottesville, Virginia, as recruitment drives.¹⁶⁸

Eli Mosley, who took over Identity Evropa from Damigo in late August 2017, played a key role in organizing the Unite the Right rally earlier that month in Charlottesville. Encouraged by the perceived success of the rally, Mosley told the media that he planned to organize many more rallies for Identity Evropa.¹⁶⁹ In early December 2017, Mosley resigned and Patrick Casey, a.k.a. Reinhard Wolff, became the group’s new CEO. Casey reportedly wanted to distance Identity Evropa from the negative coverage of the Charlottesville rally through more private, invitation-only events rather than large gatherings like Unite the Right. Casey called for more public banner displays and more demonstrations on college campuses, as well as at meet-ups, fitness clubs, and similar communal events.¹⁷⁰ Identity Evropa joined a November 2018 lawsuit against the city of Charlottesville claiming city officials violated their rights by not allowing the rally to go forward. Identity Evropa dropped out of the lawsuit the following month. The National

Socialist Movement, Traditionalist Worker Party, and rally organizer Jason Kessler remained on the lawsuit.¹⁷¹

In March 2019, Identity Evropa’s leaders simultaneously announced the organization’s closure and the creation of AIM. Casey said in a press release that Identity Evropa was “held down by baggage accumulated before my tenure.”¹⁷² This is likely a reference to Identity Evropa’s linkage with the Unite the Right rally, from which Casey had previously sought to distance the group. Further, a series of racist and anti-Semitic Identity Evropa private chat messages leaked from the online chat server Discord earlier that March.¹⁷³ Casey claimed on Twitter that the brand change had been planned for months and had nothing to do with the leaked messages. According to Casey, Identity Evropa focused solely on the promotion of white identity but AIM would expand its focus through a “holistic approach” that would include identitarianism, non-interventionism, nationalism, protectionism, and populism.¹⁷⁴ Casey and AIM have sought to disavow Identity Evropa and “the decisions of former leaders and members,” claiming that Casey had no leadership role in the organization during Charlottesville.¹⁷⁵

AIM announced that it would phase out Identity Evropa’s web presence and create its own.¹⁷⁶ AIM claims to be “a growing, active movement defending our nation against mass immigration and the scourge of globalism.”¹⁷⁷ AIM further claims that it seeks “peaceful, visible action” and the “restoration of American identity.”¹⁷⁸ The group held an inaugural conference in Nashville, Tennessee, on March 9, 2019.¹⁷⁹ The following day, almost 100 AIM members rallied at the State Capitol in Nashville in the group’s inaugural protest.¹⁸⁰

AIM claimed it drew almost 100 people to its inaugural rally at the State Capitol in Nashville, Tennessee, on March 10, 2019.¹⁹⁴

- Recruitment and Propaganda: Identity Evropa focused its propaganda and recruitment efforts primarily on university campuses, where it sought to start student groups. In 2017, Identity Evropa propaganda appeared on more than 30 college campuses.¹⁹⁵ The group’s membership form invites those U.S. residents “of European, non-Semitic heritage” to join its ranks. Applicants “ready to make a real difference for the future of our people” are interviewed over video conference call.¹⁹⁶ The group used as its logo an old European design of a dragon’s eye with a “Y” inside, which it claims represents the choice between good and evil.¹⁹⁷

AIM portrays itself as a patriotic American organization that seeks to protect the American cultural identity. The group’s language in its propaganda specifically promotes American nationalism and references ideas such as “the preservation of America’s historical demographics in the face of mass immigration” and protecting “American industry and workers, rather than benefit globalist interests.”¹⁹⁸ AIM has adopted patriotic colors and symbolism in its propaganda. Its logo features a bald eagle and shield decorated with stars colored in red, white, and blue. AIM has created flyers and shirts with its logo and other imagery reminiscent of U.S. propaganda during World War II.¹⁹⁹ AIM’s language is couched in patriotism. It uses slogans such as “Defend America!” to promote its anti-immigration positions. The group proudly displays American flags to give the illusion that they are supporting the country rather than xenophobia.²⁰⁰ AIM claims to reject extremism, political violence, and all forms of supremacy in favor of “peacefully and lawfully” effecting change through activism and popular protest.²⁰¹ Despite its claims of rejecting supremacy, AIM’s rhetoric firmly supports the preservation of what it considers to be the white identity of America.²⁰²

League of the South

- Summary: Created in 1994, the League of the South is a self-proclaimed “neo-Confederate” group that seeks a second Southern secession and a society dominated by “European Americans.”²¹³ The League advocates the transformation of southern U.S. states into independent nations in order to protect Southerners of European descent who are “committed to preserving the traditional culture of the South.”²¹⁴ The group promotes itself as pro-South and pro-white, and has levied hateful rhetoric against non-Christians and African Americans, among other minorities. The League further claims that it is not a racist organization, as it deems the word “racist” to be “a slur used by anti-Whites.” Instead, the group argues it is “pro-South and pro-White.”²¹⁵

The League of the South has warned supporters about the loss of white, Christian culture in America due to what the group calls the “corrupt and corrupting influence of post-Christian culture in America.”²¹⁶ During the League’s June 2017 national conference in Alabama, former KKK leader David Duke said that there has been a “purposeful destruction of our country” and praised the League’s “glorious leader,” Michael Hill.²¹⁷

In February 2017, the League of the South created the Southern Defense Force to “combat this growing leftist menace to our historic Christian civilization.” League of the South founder Michael Hill noted that the League does not promote violence except in “self-defense of life, liberty, and property,” but has called on followers to stand ready by building their firearms and hand-to-hand combat skills. Though Hill officially disavowed the use of violence in an offensive capacity, his inflammatory rhetoric threatens to inspire others to violence, as Hill makes vague and provocative statements such as the assertion that whites will “not only fight back, but relish doing so!”²¹⁸

- Website: leagueofthesouth.com
- Social Media Presence: Facebook (suspended), YouTube
- Leadership: Michael Hill is the League of the South’s founder and president.²²⁰
- Membership Size and Relevance: The League of the South claims to maintain 16 chapters across the United States.²²¹ The group’s membership has significantly increased since its founding in 1994. By 1998, the League of the South claimed to have recruited 4,000 members. By 2000, it reportedly had roughly 9,000 members, and in the early 2000s, that number allegedly grew to 15,000 members nationwide. In 2009, Michael Hill claimed that his organization had 25,000 members, but far-right watchdog groups doubted the veracity of this claim.²²² As of August 25, 2017, more than 7,500 people followed the League of the South’s Facebook page, which has since been suspended.²²³ The group’s YouTube channel has received more than 50,000 views as of April 2, 2018.²²⁴

In the mid-2000s, the League of the South splintered as many group leaders defected over Hill’s increasingly overt racism. However, the group has adapted to internal fissures by mobilizing new followers around mainstream political issues such as immigration and “traditional marriage.”²²⁵

- Recruitment and Propaganda: The League of the South appeals to Southern pride and nationalism by propagandizing that the Southern way of life is under threat. Those who join the group are told that they are joining “a group of Southern Nationalist men and women who are not content to sit by and allow their land, liberty, and culture be

- Violent Activities: At least one member of the League of the South has been linked to political violence and domestic terrorism plots.
 - In 2004, police arrested Michael Tubbs, a leading activist in Florida and former soldier, and found several caches of arms and explosives along with a target list that included newspapers, television stations, and Jewish-owned businesses.²²⁸ After his arrest, news outlets discovered that Tubbs had a history of violence and had robbed fellow soldiers at gunpoint. Despite the arrest, Michael Hill and other leaders allowed Tubbs to remain a member.²²⁹

 - Michael Hill, September 22, 2016: “Feral negroes and those puppeteers who control their actions had best be careful not to take their street theater too far from the urban kraals in which it has thus far been confined. When they hit the suburbs, the small towns, and the rural areas of the South, there is going to be a surprise awaiting them: white people who not only fight back, but relish doing so!”²³¹
 - Michael Hill, August 18, 2016: “I remember a time when I felt comfortable pretty much everywhere I went, from the rural, the suburban, to the urban. And the reason was simple: the white European man was clearly in control of all those areas. I never thought of taking a pistol with me when I went to downtown Birmingham, or Memphis, or Atlanta. The South, in particular, was still thoroughly White Man’s Land (but that was slowly changing because of the federal government’s involvement in forcing “civil rights” for negroes down our throats).”²³²

National Socialist Movement

Summary: The National Socialist Movement (NSM) is a prominent neo-Nazi group that has directed extremist, incendiary rhetoric toward Jews and other minorities while supporting violence in pursuit of its political goal of “the union of all Whites into a greater America on the basis of the right of national self-determination.”²³⁵ The Southern Poverty Law Center identifies the NSM as the largest neo-Nazi movement in the United States.²³⁶ The NSM bills itself as “America’s premier white civil rights organization.”²³⁷ Though the NSM officially rejects violence, the group has declared its intention to defend itself.²³⁸ The NSM acknowledges that Adolf Hitler created Nazism in Germany, but believes that it can be applied anywhere. The movement believes society promotes a “big lie” of equality among the races, and “the White Race” is “the most advanced and progress producing race on earth.” The NSM believes that the white race faces extinction through race mixing as well as violence. To that end, the NSM calls for street demonstrations, rallies, and marches in order to spread its message, as it believes that the mainstream media is dominated by Jews.²³⁹

In February 2019, black activist James Stern replaced longtime leader Jeff Schoep as president of the NSM. Schoep reportedly sought to disband the group, but Stern convinced Schoep to sign it over to him instead. Schoep claimed that he was tricked into the transfer. Stern has promised to render the group impotent rather than allow Schoep to disband it, which would allow somebody else to later revive the group.²⁴⁰ Other members of the NSM have tried to wrest control away from Stern. Stern died of cancer in October

- Leadership: Commander Jeff Schoep was NSM's founder and national director. Other prominent leaders include Captain Brian Culpepper, public relations, and Captain Butch Urban, chief of staff.²⁴³ Black activist James Stern took over leadership of the NSM in February 2019.²⁴⁴ The following month, Schoep issued a press release that Stern had no affiliation with NSM and Schoep had appointed former chief of staff Burt Colucci as the group's new commander.²⁴⁵ Colucci launched a legal battle for control of the NSM and its website. Stern died of cancer in October 2019, leaving the group's future uncertain.²⁴⁶
- Membership Size and Relevance: NSM reportedly had 40 dues-paying members nationwide as of 2018, according to former outreach coordinator Matthew Heimbach.²⁴⁷ NSM's total nationwide membership is unknown. As of 2018, the group has 61 local chapters in 35 states and is the largest neo-Nazi group in America.²⁴⁸ The group also claims to have chapters in the United Kingdom, Italy, Estonia, and Sweden.²⁴⁹ On YouTube, the group had 1,020 subscribers and 149 videos as of January 2, 2018, but has since been suspended.²⁵⁰

In 2016, NSM leader Jeff Schoep created a national far-right alliance called the Aryan Nationalist Alliance (ANA), which included neo-Nazis, racist skinheads, and Klansmen. Schoep saw the alliance as an opportunity for NSM to gain more acceptance among the far right.²⁵¹ The Traditionalist Worker Party joined the coalition that November and ANA rebranded as the Nationalist Front. The League of the South joined the Nationalist Front in April 2017. The Nationalist Front has since held several rallies across the United States, attracting a few dozen supporters at each event. The Nationalist Front calls for the creation of separate, independent ethnostates in North America for each racial group.²⁵² TWP collapsed in March 2018 and League of the South pulled out of the Nationalist Front shortly after, leaving the coalition's future in doubt.²⁵³

- Recruitment and Propaganda: The NSM's main goal is to "secure the existence of our people and a future for White children."²⁵⁴ NSM's 25 Points of American National Socialism" manifesto also contains anti-Semitic rhetoric and insists that "no Jew or homosexual may be a member of the nation (greater America)."²⁵⁵

The NSM's manifesto, "25 Points of American National Socialism," details the hate group's goal of creating a "union of all Whites into a greater America on the basis of the right of national self-determination."²⁵⁶ The manifesto calls for an end to all immigration to the United States and a series of economic changes, including the dissolution and nationalization of corporations. The manifesto also calls for the abolishment of the U.S. healthcare system and replacing it with universal healthcare. At the same time, the manifesto is peppered with racist and anti-Semitic language blaming immigrants, non-whites, and Jews for societal and political problems in the United States.²⁵⁷

The NSM requires its members to be at least 18 years old, but it also maintains a youth wing called the Viking Youth Corps for children between the ages of 14 and 17.²⁵⁸ The program is open to children of NSM members who are of pure European descent. The NSM refuses membership to children with Jewish or mixed-race bloodlines.²⁵⁹ The NSM uses the swastika as its symbol, believing that it represents the white race just as the Star of David represents Jews.²⁶⁰ The NSM also publishes a print and online magazine of the same name.²⁶¹

In November 2016, the NSM abandoned the swastika as its symbol. It instead adopted a pre-Roman alphabet symbol that had also been used by the Nazis. According to Schoep, the move was “an attempt to become more integrated and more mainstream.”²⁶² In September 2018, former Traditionalist Worker Party leader Matthew Heimbach joined the NSM as its community outreach director.²⁶³

- Violent Activities: NSM officially disavows violent tactics.²⁶⁴ Nonetheless, NSM members have been involved in violent activities.
 - On October 23, 2017, NSM member Taylor Michael Wilson disabled the engine and internal lights of an Amtrak train traveling through Nebraska. Wilson was carrying a bag with a handgun, ammunition, a knife, a gas mask, a hammer, and NSM ID cards. Crew members subdued Wilson in the engine room. Investigators searching Wilson’s Missouri home in December 2017 found Nazi propaganda and unregistered firearms. A search of Wilson’s emails revealed he had purchased a ticket to Syria in order to join ISIS the previous year. Wilson told a cellmate that he had taken acid prior to boarding the Amtrak train and wanted to “save the train from black people.”²⁶⁵ Wilson pled guilty in July 2018 and was sentenced to 14 years in prison that October. He claimed that he was high on acid and did not intend to hurt anybody.²⁶⁶
 - On April 16, 2011, members of the National Socialist Movement fought with counter-demonstrators after the latter threw rocks at a church where the group was holding a meeting.²⁶⁷ No NSM members were arrested by the police.
- Rhetoric:
 - NSM Frequently Asked Questions: “The first step is to awaken White people the world over to their own racial identity and to give them a profound appreciation of who they are. This is a huge undertaking! But it must be done and the NSM is doing everything in its power to do it! Conducting street demonstrations, marches and public rallies are all great ways to awaken and enable our racial family.”²⁶⁸

Traditionalist Worker Party/Traditionalist Youth Network

- Summary: The Traditionalist Worker Party (TWP) emerged in 2015 as the political arm of the Traditionalist Youth Network (TYN), which Matthew Parrott and Matthew Heimbach created in 2013. The TWP claimed to be America’s “first political party created by and for working families.”²⁷³ Although the TWP claimed that it opposed racism, it endorsed former KKK leader David Duke for the U.S. Senate, praising his “service of our identity” and his work “against the actual racial supremacists: the Zionists.”²⁷⁴ The group is guided by the Fourteen Words mantra: “We must secure the existence of our people and a future for White children.”²⁷⁵ Deceased white supremacist

David Lane created the motto, which has been adopted by the TWP and various other white nationalist groups.²⁷⁶ The Fourteen Words are the basis for the TWP's dedication to creating a "sustainable Homeland for our culture, identity, families, and blood."²⁷⁷

The Southern Poverty Law Center has dubbed Heimbach a "rising star in the white supremacist world."²⁷⁸ According to the Anti-Defamation League, Heimbach cites Duke as a major influence.²⁷⁹ Parrott owns a compound in southern Indiana where he and his son-in-law, Heimbach, lived with other followers. The TWP planned to put forward candidates in Indiana's state and local elections in 2018.²⁸⁰ Heimbach promoted and attended the August 2017 Unite the Right rally in Charlottesville, Virginia.²⁸¹

The TWP focused its rhetoric on what it termed the pillars of faith, family, and folk. The party called for a rejection of atheism and secularism while claiming its members come from the "traditional faiths of the European people." It promoted what it called traditional family values, and fought for the interests of white Americans, who it says have been "abandoned by the System and actively attacked by globalists and traitorous politicians." The group claims it actively fights for a white homeland in order to secure the future existence of the white people.²⁸²

The group's leadership fell into disarray in March 2018 after Heimbach was arrested for physical assault against his wife and Parrott, his step-father-in-law. Heimbach is married to Parrott's stepdaughter. On March 13, 2018, Heimbach was arrested after a physical altercation with Parrott following Heimbach's affair with Parrott's wife. Matthew Parrott resigned from TWP following the incident.²⁸³ Parrott told the Daily Beast that because of the public altercation, "people have lost faith in the party on every level."²⁸⁴ The TWP's website shut down shortly after Parrott's resignation, though its YouTube presence remains active. In September 2018, Heimbach briefly joined the National Socialist

Vanguard America/Patriot Front

- Summary: Vanguard America (VA) is a white nationalist, neo-Nazi group that opposes the idea of a multicultural America and has propagated an extremist, incendiary platform targeting African Americans, immigrants, Jews, and other minorities. Founded in 2014, the group primarily operates online, though its website was suspended in August 2017 by its Internet service provider. However, the site has since reappeared with the same URL as the online home of the Patriot Front. As exemplified by its slogan of “blood and soil,” VA ties national identity with racial identity. The group believes that the United States is meant exclusively for the white nation.³⁰⁵

In December 2016, authorities discovered VA fliers posted on the University of Maryland campus.³⁰⁶ During the 2016-2017 school year, the Anti-Defamation League discovered 32 incidents of VA propaganda on university campuses in Arkansas, California, Florida, Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey, Oregon, Texas, Virginia, and Washington. The group also organizes public rallies in conjunction with other white supremacist groups.³⁰⁷

Thomas Ryan Rousseau, leader of VA's Texas chapter, brought a contingent of VA members to the August 2017 Unite the Right rally in Charlottesville, Virginia.³⁰⁸ Alex Fields, who drove his car into a crowd of counter-protesters, killing one, was photographed wearing VA's uniform during the rally. However, VA later denied that Fields belonged to the movement and condemned the use of violence, reiterating its claim to be a political movement.³⁰⁹ In late August 2017, Rousseau broke from VA to form the Patriot Front after disagreements with its leaders. Rousseau reportedly seized control of VA's servers and repurposed its website and social media accounts. The Patriot Front has

Dillon Irizarry, a Marine Corps veteran from New Mexico, is the leader of Vanguard America.³¹³ Francisco Rivera claims to be the group's public relations liaison.³¹⁴ Thomas Ryan Rousseau is the former leader of VA's Texas chapter and the founder of the Patriot Front.³¹⁵
- Membership Size and Relevance: As of August 2017, the VA had active chapters in Arizona, California, Florida, Indiana, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Texas, Virginia, and Washington. Irizarry has claimed the group is active in 20 states and has a membership of at least 200. VA formed a women's division in 2017.³¹⁶ According to the Anti-Defamation League, VA primarily targets 18- to 24-year-olds.³¹⁷

The exact size of the Patriot Front is undetermined. As of March 19, 2019, the Patriot Front's YouTube channel had 1,367 subscribers but no content.³¹⁸ Created in September 2017, the Patriot Front's Twitter account had 1,005 followers as of January 2, 2018, but was suspended soon after.³¹⁹ The Patriot Front created a new Twitter account in February 2018, which had 589 followers as of April 2, 2018.³²⁰ The Twitter account of the Patriot Front's Texas chapter, which was repurposed from VA's Texas chapter, had 765 followers as of April 2, 2018.³²¹ Also repurposed from VA's Washington chapter, the Twitter account of the Patriot Front's Washington chapter had 805 followers as of April 2, 2018.³²² All of these Twitter accounts have since been suspended. The Patriot Front launched a new Twitter account in January 2019, which had 424 followers as of March 19 that year.³²³

- Recruitment and Propaganda: VA and the Patriot Front utilize the Internet to spread their propaganda through fliers, stickers, and social media channels. The group has distributed propaganda at universities, and synagogues, and publicly displayed white nationalist and anti-Semitic banners and other propaganda.³²⁴ VA requires its members to be at least 80 percent European ancestry, while banning felons, addicts, "homosexuals, transsexual, adulterers, or any other form of sexual degeneracy."³²⁵

The Patriot Front has embraced imagery that is both patriotic American and traditional fascist. The Front has imbued its manifesto with patriotic language that paints the organization as the savior of an America that, "as we know it, is already dead or will not survive. This age of our people will instead be seen as an era of rebirth, and the beginning of a new chapter in history." The Front is dedicated to creating a "nation within a nation" that it claims will be a "hard reset" of the current America and "a return to the traditions and virtues of our forefathers."³²⁶ During its demonstrations, the Front has employed anti-immigrant, anti-Semitic, and racist language that calls for the deportation and/or the marginalization of non-whites.³²⁷

- Violent Activities: Neither the VA nor the Patriot Front have directly engaged in violent activity. Nonetheless, the VA insignia was displayed by a person who engaged in a violent attack.
 - August 12, 2017: James Alex Fields displayed a VA shield during the Unite the Right rally in Charlottesville, Virginia. At the rally, Fields drove his car into a group of counter-protesters, killing one woman. VA later denied that Fields belonged to the organization.³²⁸

COUNTER EXTREMISM PROJECT

- Patriot Front manifesto: “Our mission is a hard reset on the nation we see today, and a return to the traditions and virtues of our forefathers. The same spirit that urged our ancestors onward to create this nation will once again be brought to light, and a new America will be built within its current dilapidated, shameful iteration. Generation after generation lived in war and strife so that their descendants may know peace. It was their duty to give their lives in such a way. It is now our duty to make their sacrifices mean something.”³²⁹
- Patriot Front manifesto: “When the American nation sees the thin veneer of civilization begin to wane as resources are diverted from them to the replacement population that has been imported to supersede and then be enslaved on their ashes, they will reasonably turn to the only force whose vision of the future includes them.”³³⁰
- Patriot Front manifesto: “America is a bleeding carcass, bereft of the moral foundations which made it powerful. The America of modernity is little more than an economic zone in which the dollar is used. A unified culture no longer exists due to replacement migration. Ethical standards no longer exist due to the steady erosion of the history of the American nation. The State has situated itself on an ever growing pile of parasitic rules and regulations. Bloated to the point of breaking by bureaucracy, each action taken to solve any problem is done so as a means to delay the inevitable. Nothing about the current system is sustainable. The hard truth of the coming struggle is that America, as we know it, is already dead or will not survive. This age of our people will instead be seen as an era of rebirth, and the beginning of a new chapter in history.”³³¹
- Patriot Front Texas chapter Twitter account, December 22, 2017: “From February 23 – March 6, 1836 Texas Patriots fought and died against a Mexican invasion. Today Patriot Front stands up against an ongoing Mexican invasion.”³³²
- Patriot Front Washington chapter Twitter account, December 22, 2017: “Stand up and defend your nation whiteman. Get off the sidelines.”³³³
- Patriot Front Twitter account, December 18, 2017: “#PatriotFront activists in Maryland did a banner drop. Those that are, and have been, incompatible with the American way of life have forfeited any right to this soil. Our nationhood is not worth gambling on a multicultural experiment.”³³⁴

Additional White Nationalist Media Resources

Like other extremist movements, the white nationalist movement has an aversion to mainstream media, which it largely views as controlled by Jewish/Zionist interests, beholden to the far-left, and/or anti-white. For example, in February 2017, League of the South leader Michael Hill accused the New York Times of being “anti-white and anti-Christian”³³⁸ As such, white nationalists have created their own media platforms in order to propagate their views. CEP has compiled the following list of some of the most popular white nationalist propaganda outlets:

- Barnes Review: An online magazine that promotes revisionist history, eugenics, and anti-Semitism. Blog posts include topics such as “Why the Holocaust Story Was Invented,”³³⁹ “DNA and Ancient White Egypt,”³⁴⁰ and “Black History Month Myths.”³⁴¹ The website also includes an online bookstore that sells racist material such as IQ and Race by Richard Hume, which argues that race determines intelligence.³⁴²
- Occidental Quarterly: A print and online magazine that “unapologetically defends the cultural, ethnic, and racial interests of Western European peoples and examines contemporary political, social, and demographic trends that impact the posterity of Western Civilization.”³⁴³ Articles include “Whiteness Studies: Jews, Communists, and

- The Right Stuff: A website founded by Mike Peinovich, a.k.a. Mike Enoch, which hosts podcasts, a blog, and a forum. Notable podcasts on the site include “The Daily Shoah,” “Fash the Nation,” and “This Week in White Genocide.” The forum, blog, and podcasts touch on a variety of white supremacist, fascist, and neo-Nazi topics such as anti-miscegenation, homophobia, and anti-Semitism, while also promoting groups such as Identity Evropa.
- Rense Radio Network: An online radio network founded by Jeff Rense, whom the Anti-Defamation League and Southern Poverty Law Center have labeled anti-Semitic.³⁵⁰ The network features well-known white supremacists such as David Duke and Don Black of Stormfront.
- RedIce.tv: An online media forum run by Henrik Palmgren, Lana Lokteff, Fredrik Tormann, and Patrick Casey. The site features video and audio programs geared toward an audience “seeking an alternative to the mainstream, covering politics and social issues from a pro-European perspective.”³⁵¹ Palmgren created RedIce in 2003. According to the site, he is “most concerned with European heritage and culture and counter acting the globalists seeking to destroy it.”³⁵²
